

CEO's Message for May 2023

Indus firmly believes that for institutions, teachers and students to be successful, we must create, and not compete.

Creativity is possible provided we develop a creative mindset, a combination of competencies of the left and right brain, and even beyond to the limits of the human mind.

Ideas are the source of a creative mindset. Generating ideas and incubating them is our innovation – mission.