Lieutenant General Arjun Ray, PVSM, VSM (Retd.)
CEO/MD
Indus Trust

Our world is being increasingly shaped by relentless technological advancement, AI, and the ever-present challenge of VUCA – volatility, uncertainty, complexity, and ambiguity. At Indus, we embrace the profound truth that, education must prepare our children not just for known futures, but for unforeseen possibilities.

Our mission – Academic Excellence, Human Values, and Fearless Innovation – is designed to equip students with the adaptability and emotional intelligence to thrive amidst change. By nurturing these core values, we empower our children with diverse choices and distinctive capabilities, ensuring they confidently navigate and excel in an AI-driven future.

With warm regards,
